

Introduction to Mechanical and Electrical Maintenance

About the Course

This course is designed for the oilfield tradesperson with both mechanical and electrical responsibilities on solids control equipment.

Main Areas of Focus

- Oilfield solids control equipment: shale shakers, hydrocyclones, agitators, pumps, and degassers.
- Related electrical components. The Mechanical and Electrical Maintenance curriculum is comprehensive and adaptable to your service personnel's needs.

Who Should Attend

Personnel with mechanical aptitude, foundation skills, and a knowledge of mechanical measurements. Students will learn the fundamentals of solids control equipment, plus maintenance procedures and troubleshooting.

Course Specifics

Instructor: Roberto Revelo

Course Length: 5 days*

Time: 8:30 AM – 4:00 PM*

Breakfast and lunch are provided*

Price: $1,500.00

Class Limit: 5

Attire:

Jeans or pants

Shirt

Closed-toed shoes

Safety equipment/tools provided

*Schedule subject to change
based on enrollment*